

ROBERT E. SHANKLAND MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Provided through the Hillsboro Educational Foundation, Inc.

Robert E. Shankland taught English at Hillsboro High School for 25 years. A career educator, proud World War II Army veteran, and skilled musician, Bob taught music in Florida and Colorado before coming to Hillsboro in 1962. Mr. Shankland was committed to the idea that all students from every background deserved the opportunity to realize their inherent potential and he was devoted to giving them that chance. In Bob's view, the roles of classical literature and a sense of humor went side by side in students' intellectual development; he spent his teaching career focusing equally on both. This scholarship has been established in his memory by his son and daughter-in-law, Rob and DeAnn Shankland.
