

Hillsboro Junior High 8th Grade Team Scholarship in Memory of Kim McGill Watson

Return applications to the HJHS office - Attention: Florence Clark by April 25, 2025

Kim Watson was a dedicated English teacher who taught at Hillsboro Junior High School for 22 years before she passed away in March 2022. She had a particular love of teaching writing to students of all ability levels, and she was honored as both teacher of the year and recipient of the Golden Apple Award. In her years of teaching, Mrs. Watson had a positive impact on thousands of Hillsboro district students.

In her honor, her 8th-grade team teaching partners are awarding 1 scholarship for $200 to a graduating HHS senior from the class of 2025.

Eligibility:

- graduating HHS senior pursuing further education after graduation (university, community college, trade, or tech school)
- former student of Mrs. Watson
- complete application and return on time

Name _____

Home address _____

Cell or home phone number (____) _____

Intended field of study _____

Have you been accepted to a college or trade school? ☐ yes ☐ no

If so, which? _____

Please attach the following:

- A well-developed paragraph describing how Mrs. Watson impacted your life. Please detail the life lessons she taught you that you will carry forward into your future.
- Your high school transcript.