

This view is facing Northeast. In the center is the current business department and gym building. On the right is the West wall of the new secondary gym/storm shelter which would replace the old gym in the main building.