Mission:

The mission of the Elizabeth Ann Seton (EAS) Program is to embrace the sanctity and dignity of life by nurturing pregnant and parenting women. EAS partners with multi-faith congregations and community organizations to provide support, education and practical assistance to women and their children.

- Educational Programs with topics such as parenting, health, communication, furthering their education, finances and job skills
- Baby Boxes provide a safe place for baby to sleep when a crib is not an option.
- EAS provides new and expectant mothers with guidance and assistance in meeting their health concerns, educational goals and emotional needs
- Provides practical assistance with food, clothing, diapers, personal hygiene items. Clients earn points to acquire needed items
- EAS refers participating families to community service programs when necessary
- Active in Springfield, Litchfield and Beardstown
- Teen mom program in the Springfield school district
- Offers the Getting Ahead in a Just Getting By World curriculum to help our clients to break the cycle of poverty.
- IRS Section 501(c)(3) not-for-profit, faith-based community organization

The Elizabeth Ann Seton Program assists low income pregnant and parenting women and their children.

CONTEMPLATE HOW YOU ARE BEING ASKED TO GIVE YOUR HEART
TO GOD. BE PREPARED TO MEET
YOUR GRACE IN EVERY CIRCUMSTANCE OF LIFE.

Who Is Elizabeth Ann Seton?

The EAS Program is named for Elizabeth Ann Seton, a woman who in the early 1800's moved from great wealth to extreme poverty, marriage to a prominent shipping merchant to the isolation of a single mother. Throughout her life, she witnessed to the ideal that women deserve a good education and chance for a fulfilled life. She used her personal resources to establish several schools, orphanages, and hospitals. Her entire life was devoted to serving women and children.
