WHO SHOULD ATTEND COLLEGE NOW?

College Now students:

- are planning to transfer to four-year college or universities.
- are able to complete college-level coursework.
- must be 16 years old at the time the term begins.
- are subject to all LLCC academic regulations and policies.
- are subject to all LLCC prerequisites, placement guidelines and policies.

BENEFITS OF COLLEGE NOW

College Now students:

- take freshman-level college courses and earn college credits that transfer to most colleges and universities.
- reduce anxiety by getting familiar with college while still in high school.
- avoid the rising cost of college. Every College Now credit earned saves students thousands of dollars.
- lighten their load in college and may even graduate early.

HOW DOES COLLEGE NOW WORK?

College Now students are released from their high school to attend LLCC-Litchfield during the mornings or afternoons. Typically, classes are held Monday through Friday. Please refer to the class schedule for exact days and times. Students earn both college credit and high school credit. Interested students should talk with their high school counselor about the College Now program.
